The Gospel for the 23rd Sunday:

Jesus said to his disciples:

‘If your brother does something wrong, go and have it out with him alone, is between your two selves.

If he listens to you, you have won back your brother.

If he does not listen, take one or two others along with you:

the evidence of two or three witnesses is required to sustain any charge.

But if he refuses to listen to these,

report it to the community;

and if he refuses to listen to the community, treat him like a pagan or a tax collector.

‘I tell you solemnly, whatever you bind on earth shall be considered bound in heaven; whatever you loose on earth shall be considered loosed in heaven.

‘I tell you solemnly once again, if two of you on earth agree to ask anything at all, it will be granted to you by my Father in heaven.

For where two or three meet in my name, I shall be there with them.’
