Feast of All Saints

Today's feast invites us to rejoice in the Lord. The saints are too numerous to count. They include the canonised saints – but they also number all the gracious people of goodness from every tribe, tongue, nation and epoch who reflected God's love faithfully. They touched and enriched our lives with love, forgiveness, laughter, humour and countless unremembered acts of kindness. (Intercom: Nov 2020)

Parish Bulletin: Copies of the weekly parish bulletin are available in the churches. The bulletin is also available on the parish website.

The holy Gospel according to Matthew 5:1-1 'How happy are the poor in spirit; theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Happy the gentle: they shall have the earth for their heritage. Happy those who mourn: they shall be comforted. Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right: they shall be satisfied. Happy the merciful: they shall have mercy shown them. Happy the pure in heart: they shall see God. Happy the peacemakers: they shall be called sons of God. Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right: theirs is the kingdom of heaven. 'Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven; this is how they persecuted the prophets before you.' The Gospel of the Lord.
