Sunday 24th April 2022 – DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Holy Week and Easter: Congratulations to all who assisted in any way in the celebrations Holy Week and Easter in the Parish of Roslea – the Ministers of the Word, Ministers of the Eucharist, Ushers, volunteers for the Way of the Cross and the Rosary. Also, thanks to Sacristan Hugh McGuirk, and Marian Kane and companions who led the Rosary & the Divine Mercy Chaplet for World Peace throughout the Wednesdays of Lent in St. Mary's Church. I wish to pay tribute to Deacons Martin Donnelly and Paul Flynn, and Sacristan Michael McKenna who led with distinction the ceremonies in St. Tierney's Church. St. Tierney's Church offered a snapshot into how liturgies will be led in many parishes in the Diocese of Clogher in the future. Monsignor Connolly and I say, 'thank you.'

Divine Mercy Sunday: Divine Mercy Sunday will be celebrated in St. Macartan's Cathedral this Sunday 24th April at 3pm. The celebration will consist of Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and Benediction; Recitation of the Divine Mercy Chaplet and the Rosary and Veneration of the Divine Mercy image and a relic of St. Faustina. A number of priests will be available for individual confession. Our Lord said to St. Faustina: "I desire to grant unimaginable graces to those souls who trust in my Mercy". Everyone welcome.

Feast Days of the Week:

Friday: St. Catherine of Siena, Virgin & Doctor of the Church, Patron of Europe, 1347 – 1380. She was a mystic and reformer of the religious life. She encouraged the return of the Pope back to Rome from exile in Avignon in France.
