Sunday 12th June 2022 – Feast of the Most Holy Trinity

This weekend the Church celebrates the Feast of the Holy Trinity. Last weekend the Church celebrated the Feast of Pentecost honouring the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles empowering them to preach the word to all nations. Holy Week honoured the Son for seeing out the Father's will to the end, and Easter honoured the Father who rose Christ from the dead. It is the love of the Father that gives us his Son, while the Holy Spirit is ever leading us to know more about the truth. This week honours God in totality, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Next Weekend is the Feast of the Body & Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi).

The Fermanagh Fleadh in Roslea: Best wishes to the Roslea Branch of Comhaltas Ceoltóirí Eirinn as its hosts the 51st Fermanagh County Fleadh. It is 14 years since Roslea hosted the County Fleadh and this year's will be the 8th Fleadh it has hosted. The colourful banners and bunting decorating the village reflect the wealth of work gone into preparing the event. May this year's County Fleadh draw many to visit Roslea and enjoy the various events. Best wishes to the organisers, tutors, adjudicators, musicians, singers, dancers, and storytellers competing and providing entertainment. Undoubtedly the late Sonny McDermott, Drummerheave who died in March 2021 will be present in spirit and in memory. Ar Dheis Dé a Anam.

The Synodal Pathway Report of the First Phase of Listening by the Clogher Diocesan Steering Committee: The report is accessed on the home page of www.dioceseofclogher.ie. It paints a very interesting picture of pastoral and liturgical life in the Diocese of Clogher and sets out the challenges ahead.

Feasts of the Week: Monday: St. Anthony of Padua, priest and doctor of the Church, Born in Portugal, died 1231. Tuesday: St. Davnet of Tydavnet. She was the founder of a church or monastery.
