Sunday 3rd July 2022 – 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Feasts of the Week: Wednesday: St. Maria Goretti, virgin & martyr, 1890 – 1902. Thursday: St. Maelruain, bishop & abbot, died 792, founded the monastery of Tallaght. Friday: St. Kilian, bishop & martyr, born in Mullagh, Co. Cavan, missionary to Germany and was put to death with two companions in 689. There is strong devotion to him in throughout Bavaria and Wurzburg where his remains lie.

Pope Francis' July Intention: For the elderly: For the elderly who represent the roots and memory of a people; may their experience and wisdom help young people to look forward to the future with hope and responsibility.

Cemetery Sunday 25th/26th June: Thanks to all involved in the two ceremonies, St. Mary's Church & St. Tierney's – sacristans Michael & Hugh, ushers, ministers of the word, eucharistic ministers, those who prayed the Decade of the Rosary and the Litany. Thankfully the weather held up at both ceremonies even though a deluge occurred immediately after the ceremony at St. Tierney's Church. I wish to pay tribute to all who prepared their family plots for the occasion, both graveyards looked very tidy. Thanks to the collectors at the exits. The yellow envelopes for Cemetery Sunday plus loose cash & coin contributions amounted to £1,799.99 (i.e. Yellow envelope £886 & loose plate £910.99) & €3,037.50 (i.e. Yellow Envelope €1,064.52 & loose plate €1,972.98). Very generous contributions!! Thank you!
