Irish archbishops: We urge a cessation of violence in the Holy Land, respect of civilian populations and release of hostages: "Over the past days we have watched with shock and dismay the events that have unfolded in the land of the birth of Our Lord. "The ongoing situation has caused great suffering to many innocent people on all sides in the present conflict. The loss of innocent lives together with the large numbers of innocent people injured in the Holy Land is a great affront to a lasting peace. Unfortunately, the present crisis does not augur well for the immediate future as many more may endure destruction and death. "We re-echo the words of Pope Francis when he said at last Sunday's audience in Saint Peter's Square, Rome: 'May the attacks and weaponry cease. Please! And let it be understood that terrorism and war do not lead to any resolutions, but only to the death and suffering of so many innocent people.' "We, who love the Holy Land as the 5th Gospel, urge all people of goodwill to work towards a cessation of violence, ensuring that civilian populations be respected and that all hostages are released without harm. "We join with Pope Francis, and the Patriarch of Jerusalem, Cardinal Pizzaballa, in calling for prayers for peace, and praying for the families and individuals suffering through these events at this time. 'Lord, come to our aid! Grant us peace; teach us peace; guide our steps in the way of peace. Open our eyes and our hearts and give us the courage to say: 'Never again war!' Amen.' "Our Lady, Queen of Peace, pray for us."

Archbishop Eamon Martin, Archbishop of Armagh, Archbishop Dermot Farrell, Archbishop of Dublin, Archbishop Kieran O'Reilly SMA, Archbishop of Cashel & Emly, Archbishop Francis Duffy, Archbishop of Tuam.

Pope Francis' Prayer for Ukraine and Russia: "Blessed are the Peacemakers" We pray to You O Lord, through the intercession of Your Most Pure Mother Mary, give to the people of Russia and Ukraine the gift of peace, for you have given us all else: A peace that all of us share in the passion and wisdom that is the Lord Jesus Christ. The peace of the Sabbath, and the peace that knows no evening. Stir up in the hearts and the minds of our leaders and politicians a longing for peace that brings real joy, and our hearts will be restless no more.

World Mission Sunday 2023: For World Mission Sunday next Sunday 22nd October, Pope Francis has chosen the theme inspired by the story of the disciples on the road to Emmaus in the Gospel of St. Luke (24: 13 – 35) "Hearts on Fire, Feet on the Move". The Holy Father's annual appeal supports overseas mission and missionaries in challenging situations and environments. You can help right now. Please donate €4.00 by texting the word 'Mission' to 50300. Alternatively donate at www.missio.ie or call Missio on 01 497 2035. To learn more, go to www.missio.ie. Next weekend's collection will go towards World Missions.

'Pause for Hope': The Catholic Cathedral of St. Patrick's, Armagh, will host an ecumenical prayer service on October 15th at 3.30pm for all those whose lives have been touched by cancer. The aim of Pause for Hope is to help people who have been affected by bringing together in prayer, those who have, or have had cancer, their loved ones, those who care for them, doctors, nurses, those who have responsibility for providing resources, and conducting research. Bishop Michael Router, Auxiliary Bishop of Armagh, will lead the service. The preacher will be Archbishop John McDowell, Church of Ireland Archbishop of Armagh, and during the service a person affected by cancer will speak about their experience. The musical accompaniment will be provided by organist Colm Murphy and the Cathedral Choir. Following the service, light refreshments will be provided in the Synod Hall.

Smithborough Presbyterian Church welcomes you to a series of Thursday evenings entitled ‘Hymns We Love’. Each night beginning at 8.00pm offers a short talk, exploring the story behind the author and the meaning behind the words, as well as refreshments. Thursday 26th October centres on ‘The Lord is My Shepherd’, the 9th November ‘And Can It Be?’ and 23rd November ‘Hark! The Herald Angels Sing.’ You are invited to bring a friend. (The Parish Priest hopes parishioners from Roslea and Smithborough will support the series ‘Hymns We Love.’)

Take the Risk for Christ: The Bishops of Ireland have chosen the theme of ‘Take the Risk for Christ’ as its logo for the promotion of the diocesan priesthood in 2023. They invite families and parishes to pray the well-known prayer for vocations composed by Saint Pope John XXIII: ‘O Jesus, send labourers into your fields, which are awaiting holy apostles, saintly priests, heroic missionaries and dedicated sisters and brothers. Enkindle in the hearts of men and women the spark of a vocation. Grant that Christian families may desire to give to your Church helpers in the work of tomorrow. Amen.’

www.universalis.com: Universalis is an app that provides the Mass readings of the day and the forthcoming weeks. It also provides the Order of the Mass, Morning, Evening Prayer, and Night Prayer from the Divine Office, as well as prayers for other times of the day. It is a very useful spiritual companion and costs between £9.99 and £19.00 to download. The Parish Priest uses it.
