The 26th Sunday is World Day of Migrants and Refugees, 'Even Just One of These Children' (Mt18:10): This year's World Day draws attention to minors directly involved in the experience of migration and flight due to war, poverty, violence, environmental disasters and other tragedies, and the care owed to them. They are witnesses to deaths on migration routes, trafficking and exploitation. Some are recruited for use in armed conflicts, subjected to sexual violence and forced marriages. Each year the number of migrant and refugee minors grows. This year's theme calls on Christians to not look away or pass by the other side but respond generously to even one child.

Formation of Parish of Roslea Pastoral Council: Fr. Chester hopes that the formation of a Parish Pastoral Council/Team will reach conclusion before Christmas 2026, comprising of members from the Roslea and the Smithboro areas. A Pastoral Council is a space where "awareness of any issue about the life and mission of the community can be raised, and possible responses discerned." The group should consist of a mix of people with the following: heads – able to think through the mission; hearts – to see the mission; and hands – for action where the issues are.
