Safeguarding Sunday in the Diocese of Clogher: This Sunday throughout the parishes of the Diocese of Clogher is Safeguarding Sunday. Members of the Parish of Roslea Safeguarding Team will present the message published by the Communications Committee of the Diocesan Safeguarding Committee. Safeguarding is visible practices of accountability. It is creating safe and welcoming environments for children, young people and adults at risk so that they too are active participants in our Church community. Thanks to those volunteers who make up the Parish's Safeguarding Team.

Formation of Parish of Roslea Pastoral Council: Fr. Chester hopes that the formation of a Parish Pastoral Council/Team will reach conclusion before Christmas 2026, comprising of members from the Roslea and the Smithboro areas. A Pastoral Council is a space where “awareness of any issue about the life and mission of the community can be raised, and possible responses discerned.” The group should consist of a mix of people with the following: heads – able to think through the mission; hearts – to see the mission; and hands – for action where the issues are.

Pope Leo’s Intention for the Month of October: That mental health ministry be established throughout the Church, helping to overcome the stigma and discrimination of persons with mental illness.

Sunday 18th October is World Mission Day. Its theme is United in Christ, United in Mission.
